Dear Central UMC,

I just wanted to check in with the Church and say thank you for recognizing me and giving me a scholarship this year to help with medical school. I have now moved down to Las Cruces, NM and am getting through my first week of classes at Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine. So far school is already incredibly challenging so I appreciate knowing that I have my church family back home supporting me as I make my way through these next four years. I can't wait to be back to see you all and tell you about my experiences down here!

*Thank you again,
Robyn Marks*

Dear Friends,

I love it when a plan comes together! Those words, often spoken by John “Hannibal” Smith in the 1980’s television action series as well in the 2010 movie by the same name, characterize how I feel about the events of this past week. George Peppard played Smith on TV in the 1980s and Liam Neeson filled that role in the movie six years ago. While I don’t have the gravelly voice of those actors, I emphatically proclaim, “I love it when a plan comes together!”

So let me tell you about this past week. During worship on September 11, I asked you to pray for a gifted man who was discerning whether or not he should take on the work of our Worship Leader for our new worship experience The Conversation. Ken Ferguson had interviewed and auditioned with Sara Hazen, John Lawrence and myself the previous Wednesday and asked for the weekend to discern where God was leading him. On Monday, September 12, Ken and I had a conversation and he accepted the position. We will begin to work with Ken in the development of The Conversation and move forward with our plans to launch that worship experience in November and December. In May we said farewell to Shiela Strang as our Kitchen Coordinator. Shiela had been in that position for seven years and has done a phenomenal job of providing meals that pleased palates of the young and old alike! Thanks Shiela! We’ve been looking for a new Kitchen Coordinator since April with little interest from within or outside our church family. Katie and Andy Henwood mentioned the job opportunity to their neighbors, the Stevens. Andy Stevens inquired about the position and as of last Thursday, he accepted the job! Andy is the Executive Chef at Rojo Mexican Bistro and the adjoining Sidecar Sliders Restaurant in Birmingham.

We’ve had four job openings that we knew we would have to fill since late winter, early spring. Frankly, it has been a frustrating summer not having those jobs filled. But as I sit to write this letter to you, we are fully staffed having filled our custodian position with Jerry Paquette and the Youth Ministry position with Doni St. Amour. While Doni is serving in an interim capacity, our youth program is beginning with a weekly schedule that is new and we pray will meet the needs of our younger members and friends.

My sense is that perhaps God was teaching me and others to be patient and to rely on God’s perfect timing. What you, our members and friends, need to know is that the staff and leadership of Central Church works many hours so that our church’s future is secure and is blessed by God’s presence. Since January, when we started to work on our Vital Church Initiative process, we always trusted that the moment would come when all our plans would culminate in a tremendous whirlwind of activity. While the original schedule hasn’t always been followed, I trust that God will bless our best efforts and provide a harvest for our labors.

So – I love it when a plan comes together! I would add, as long as it’s God’s plan and timing. As the fall schedule gets busier and we see the harvest of our labors, may we receive that harvest giving thanks to our loving God. May it be to our benefit and to the glory of Jesus Christ.

I look forward to seeing you in church.

Because of Christ,

Pastor Jack
